Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18

Characters: Narrator, Sarai, Abram & God

NARRATOR Abram was a good, hard-working man.

ABRAM I am a hard-working man.

NARRATOR Who trusted God.

ABRAM I follow God's word.

NARRATOR But Abram was sad that he and his wife were still waiting for God to fulfil his promise to them

SARAI Don't worry, Abram. God has heard our prayers. He knows everything we want. We must trust in the Lord.

ABRAM Oh, Sarai, will I ever have anyone to leave my wealth to?

NARRATOR God spoke to Abram.

GOD Cheer up Abram. Don't you trust me? Listen to your wife Sarai. I have not let you down yet. Haven't I kept you safe so far?

ABRAM Well yes, God, you have. It's just.....

GOD Just?

ABRAM No family. You know how sad it makes us.

GOD Now Abram, cheer up. Have faith in me. You shall be the father you would like to be, and Sarai shall be a great mum, but you need to trust me. Believe me you shall have a family big enough to form a mixed football team.

ABRAM Wow, this seems too good to believe, God!

GOD Well believe it, Abram. Continue to follow my way and bring your children up to do the same.

ABRAM There is no doubt in my heart about that, God.
